

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Support Local Business While You Dine for United Way.

Red Deer, Alberta – June 1, 2017 – United Way Central Alberta announces an opportunity to eat, drink and support your community.

Dine for United Way is a fun promotion that provides an alternative way for local restaurants to participate in supporting the local community. Patrons choose a promotion that relates to one of their menu items, and donates all or part of the proceeds to United Way Central Alberta for the duration of the month.

“This promotion is a great way to have small businesses in Central Alberta help United Way make an impact in our community,” said volunteer Campaign Co-Chair Linda Wilson. “Small businesses are the backbone of our local economy and we appreciate their generous support.”

Everyone is invited to add their support to the Dine for United Way campaign by enjoying the menu items offered on promotion by these participating vendors.

Babycakes Cupcakery - $1 from the feature “lemonade” cupcake (June 1-12)

Botanica Gardens located @ Baymont Inn & Suites - $.50 from every full lunch buffet

Bo’s Bar & Grill - $1 from every item on the summer menu

Chillabongs - $1 from every pint and pitcher of any Rickard’s Red beer and $1 from every “Dine for United Way Burger”

It’s All Greek To Me – 2% from all appetizer sales

Garden Terrace Restaurant @ The Sheraton – percentage of food sales

Hybrid 26 - $.26 from all entrees on the dinner menu

Las Palmeras - $1 from any margarita (including non-alcoholic)

Quenched – purchase any item, make a donation, and your next order is free (of equal or lesser value)

Tandoor n’ Flame - $.50 from every lunch buffet

T’s Bakery - $1 from the Fresh Bowl and Spicy Buddha Bowl and $1 from every beverage on Friday night happy hour
