Celebrating Indigenous Culture

To begin the celebration of National Indigenous Peoples Day a day early, Red Deer Native Friendship Society organized the Waskasoo Seepee Traditional Pow Wow. Our Community Impact Development Officer, Lori Jack, attended the fun-filled event on June 20th and gives an account of her experience below.

Selfish and Entitled - The Truth about Millennial Giving

Millennials are.....

"Selfish"

"Narcissistic"

"Entitled"

"Lazy"

These are just some of the common stereotypes or misconceptions about millennials. In fact, research shows that they see themselves as the "impact generation" - a generation full of future leaders and influencers who can bring change to the local community.
