LEADING CHANGE IN THE WORKPLACE

"Today I am happier and excited about my future employment outlook. I am gainfully employed, as a Community Disability Support Worker (CDSW1) I can finally say I have found a career that I love. Being in service for others, has brought me so many joys. Knowing that I am making a difference in the life of another person is a very rewarding feeling. I look forward with anticipation to my next shift."

"Life can be a challenge when disabled and without family. However, thanks to United Way of Central Alberta and your support, I am able to remain independent in my own home and be an active volunteer in my community.

I hope my story encourages others to support United Way of Central Alberta and their ongoing work to create better lives for all of us in our communities." - Linda Sheppard, Program Participant
