UNITED WAY CENTRAL ALBERTA

At United Way Central Alberta (UWCA), we strive to maintain our social contract to build strong and inclusive communities throughout Central Alberta and to strengthen vital connections that support people in need. Our diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) and Indigenous reconciliation strategies are the core of our work. A more inclusive movement will enable UWCA to contribute to the cultural and societal change needed to create a more equitable Central Alberta and help realize our vision of thriving communities where everyone can reach their potential.

United Way Central Alberta is committed to creating an inclusive workplace that reflects the diverse community we serve. We encourage candidates from diverse backgrounds to apply to join our team. By incorporating various experiences and perspectives, we create opportunities for innovative solutions and maximize our work's impact.

POSITION SUMMARY

The GenNext Committee is a dynamic UWCA affinity group comprising dedicated young professionals in their 20s and 30s committed to shaping the future of our community. GenNext empowers its volunteer members to develop a deeper understanding of local issues while igniting a passion for leadership and philanthropy to drive meaningful change. Harnessing the skills, passions, and networks of its members, GenNext fosters local leadership and inspires collective action around community needs.
